If you watch the SuperBowl, you had to see the commercial. Las Vegas' long awaited new project by Steve Wynn is finally opening. April 28th is the date Wynn Las Vegas is going to open for business.

Many people know what Steve Wynn is capable by his previous projects like the Bellagio, and The Mirage. Steve Wynn seems to have uped the ante in Las Vegas Casino Hotel Design. Each of the 2,700 guest rooms and suites is artistically designed from floor to ceiling with beautiful views of the Las Vegas Strip. Surprisingly there has not been much information about the new hotel released to the press yet, aside from the basic features and amenities.

One of the most notable features has to be the 18-hole championship golf course designed by Tom Fazio and Steve Wynn that can only be enjoyed by guests of the Wynn Las Vegas hotel.

Reservations for rooms are already being taken, if you are interested in being the first to stay at this luxury resort.
